MAP ROADS AND STUDY ABILITY OF COUNTY FOR BONDS

County Commissioner-Elect Begins Survey of Needs and Taxing Capacity

A. L. MATHEWS TO SIT WITH PRESENT BOARD

County Bookkeeper and County Engineer To Assist In Getting Data

Recording and mapping of the roads of Palm Beach county more completely than has ever been done before, and making full inquiry into the ability of the county to finance completion of existing road and new construction will be one of the first acts of the new board of county commissioners, it is indicated by a letter from A. L. Mathews of West Palm Beach, commissioner-elect from the second district.

Mr. Mathews has been urged by Joseph E. Bell, chairman of the present board, to attend all of the sessions that will be held hereafter and he will do so. He has also indicated to Lou Germain, bookkeeper in the office of Fred E. Fenn, the clerk to the board, information that is desired for the survey of road conditions.

In a letter to the editor of The Everglades News this week Mr. Mathews writes:

"As I said during my campaign, I think before and further financing for the county is done, there should be a very careful survey of the county to determine its taxing ability and from this should be deducted the present requirements both for retirement of bonds, interest and annual budget. This will then give us a line on what the ability of the county is with regard to future financing."

"Have not had time to make a detailed study of the situation but have glanced over the record of all the different special road districts in the county showing the amount of money that each has on hand. I have not had time to contact the engineer Boyd yet but to complete this statement it seems to me that the statement of each district should show what work is to be done in that district as compared with the amount of money on hand; also the financing requirements of each district to provide for interest on sinking funds in the outstanding bonds of the district."

"I don't think we will have much trouble in getting this data as Mr. Germain seems very anxious to co-operate in every possible manner with the commissioners."

"I had a long talk with Mr. Bell the other night and he was very anxious for me to meet with the commissioners. I am much more am here on the ground, I think it shall attend the various meetings from now on until the first of the year, which will give me a fairly good line on the situation."

"I am also trying to work out a plan for a map which will show all the special road districts in the county but there is such a multiplicity of these districts it seems almost impossible to work this matter out in one map and it may be necessary to have a series of maps to give us a clear idea of the situation, especially as some of these districts overlap."

"I also have in mind another map for a fairly large scale which will show every road in the county and this map will indicate the width of the road, characters of construction, etc., and when any proposition is being considered we will have before us visual evidence of just what the road situation is in the county."

"I am writing Mr. Hathaway of the State Highway Department as to just what their program is for Palm Beach county so that this data may be correlated with other construction data."

SOUTH BAY

SOUTH BAY, Nov. 23.—People here are looking forward to a good bean crop. Some have shipped beans already. Crops are looking good. Vegetable buyers are on the ground. C. D. Dyer, of the Dyer solicitors, who is with us again this year, represents the Hamburger Company of New York. W. H. Vann and Fred Taylor of Canal Point, also vegetable buyers, were here yesterday. They were accompanied by George P. Webb of Ridgewood, N. J. They were at the South Bay Hotel for lunch.

The South Bay Chamber of Commerce has a new president. The chairmanship of 44 was reported. A committee was appointed on school welfare work.

The entertainment committee gave a program of piano music, songs and dancing. After this the refreshment committee served sandwiches and coffee.

Mr. Thomas, founder of the Tampa Hardware Company, with two sons, visited our community Saturday and Sunday.

Frank "Jack" Oliver, one of the well known bean salesmen, was here with the party. He represents Mr. Thomas' firm.

Reverend Thomas solicited members for the Red Cross. Mrs. Hartline and Miss Virginia Lyons assisted in the work. A total of sixteen members was secured.

Mr. Brooks served over fifty people at the church Saturday and Sunday. Among the number was his brother, Captain F. A. Forbes, with a party of eight.

Reverend Thomas preached here Sunday morning and drove to Belle Glade to deliver a sermon there Sunday evening.

The Belle Glade High school and Miss Mayfield, county social service worker visited this community on Sunday.

The Belle Glade church choir will sing special Thanksgiving music next Sunday at the regular preaching service. Special music will likewise be rendered here at the evening service.

LETTERS FROM READERS

E. L. Hendricks, Palm Beach, Fla.: "Your paper isn't big in size, but in the things it does, it is big. I don't want to miss a copy. The news below where it lists where to get it would seem that the 'truth distributor' was not on 'tint'. Success be with you."

Charles W. Smith, 1821 Lincoln street, Hollywood, Fla.: "Some weeks ago one was good enough to send me a copy of The Everglades News, which I enjoyed very much. While I am not in the market for a year's subscription, as I am anxious to get a copy of every issue in the future."

S. Thompson, Fort Lauderdale, Fla.: "Enclosed find, check for renewal of subscription. I like your paper very much."

Darwin A. Smith, Welland, Ont.: "Will you please send your paper regularly to Judge W. S. Caswell, 219 Eighth street, Bismarck, N. D. If possible, send me a copy. Send the subscription statement to me and I will send the amount to you."

Robert Moll, 131 Cedar Blvd., Mt. Lebanon, Pittsburgh, Pa.: "As my subscription is about to expire, will you kindly renew it for 1927. My subscription expires Dec. 16, 1926, and an extra little bit added to what you've got makes just a little bit more. I take great pleasure in paying ahead of time, which may be a small extra effort to pay debts with which you are burdened."

BIG DRAINAGE TAX PUT ON TOWN LOTS WITHOUT NOTICE

$1.25 For Each of Years 1925 and 1926 and $1.50 On Each Town Lot Thereafter

FRESH INSTANCE OF ABUSE OF TAX POWER

Tax Is Without Reference To Relative Value or Benefits of Drainage

Discovery has just been made that a tax of $1.25 on each town lot in Everglades drainage district is assessing a specific amount into the drainage fund for the 1925 session of the Florida Legislature, in consequence of which thousands of investors may lose their properties. The $1.25 tax is to be levied in the years 1925 and 1926 and is to be $1.50 on each lot annually thereafter.

This tax, imposed without notice, is to be found on page 23, Florida Commission on Taxation, 1925.

It is reported that 10,000 acres of the city of Miami is included in the drainage district, this in addition to all Coral Gables and of Hialeah, Opa-locka, and the surrounding areas. In subdivisions in Miami, Belle Glade, for example, where an acre has been divided into twelve lots, the drainage tax, instead of being $1.25 an acre, is $1.50 an acre, or $17.50 an acre. Lots that have been divided into five lots to the acre are now obliged to pay a drainage tax of $2.25 an acre.

Close examination has not been made of this tax, but it is believed that it is levied by Captain Pahokee.

A MISSING FUND REPORT

One of the several things that irritates the people of the Everglades is the Tallahassee crowd's pretense of frankness about Everglades affairs while actually the important facts are held back.

That is quite a raw thing to charge against state officials, honest gentlemen, but here is an instance of it:

The International News Service sent out, on the authority of C. Luning, state treasurer, a statement of disbursements and receipts and balance of certain state funds. The statement has all the frills of compleat satisfaction. It tells about the school fund and the state road tax fund and the state road aid road fund and Everglades drainage district sinking fund. It goes on with figures of University of Florida incidental fund (note, that, incidental fund!) state road license and gas fund and tick eradication fund and other funds in tiresome detail, but about the fund in which there is more interest in South Florida now than any other there isn't a word or a figure.

It is not the Everglades sinking fund we are interested in—it is the fund into which the drainage taxes are first paid and out of which payment is made for Chief Engineer F. C. Elliot's salary and for dredges and similar expenses. And about that the State Treasurer's compleat statement hasn't a word or a figure. That is withheld back, suppressed.

It's a petty and mean practice, this eternal equivocation. The condemnation of the practice is warranted. The Everglades never has sought for a statement to get a detailed statement of Everglades drainage district finances—how much taken from each of the several zones, how much from each county-portion of the drainage district, the total of the drainage tax and the total of the ad valorem tax by counties. But why specify?—only because if every single item isn't specifically asked for it will be withheld back, suppressed.

The board members say theirs is an economical administration. How do we know? Who does know? They say the excavation costs are low? Who knows? If the books of the drainage district are kept as records of public affairs ought to be kept, a statement is made up every month. If there is a statement such as a third class municipality is expected to have, let's have copies of them printed every month.

This practice of reporting the condition of other funds and suppressing Everglades drainage district figures is a justification for the demand of residents and taxpayers that the personnel and the board be changed.

In view of what happened to the banks under the charge of Comptroller Ernest Amos, a member of the board, the public has additional justification for the demand that the board come clean with a detailed statement—a complete statement, not a partial one.

Will Hays, boss of the moving picture business, says he is to preserve American history in films. Has he pictured the Hall-Mills murder case and the Aimee McPherson kidnapping trial? These seem to be the most important happenings, we judge from the daily news papers.

Hialeahough county is to have a high school building that will cost $390,000. Forward, Florida!

AN ISSUE BUSTED IN ADVANCE

Before his term of office as governor of Florida expired, Sidney J. Catts was a candidate for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator, opposing Hon. Duncan U. Fletcher, the senior Senator from this state. During a portion of the term of Governor Carey A. Hardee there was a widespread impression that he would be a candidate for the United States Senate. Governor Hardee did not become a candidate for the Senate, but he suffered some loss in public esteem because it was, that his acts as governor were influenced by desire to advance a candidacy for another office.

Hon. Park Trammell, junior United States Senator from Florida, served a term as Governor and if recollection serves rightly, Governor Napoleon P. Broward was elected to the United States Senate.

There is a widespread impression that Governor John W. Martin is now a candidate for the United States Senate and that he is campaigning against Senator Park Trammell. The impression may be wrong, but the existence of the impression is not unnatural in view of the precedents.

Governor Martin is now dealing with affairs of Everglades drainage district, which district is administered by a board of commissioners of which the governor is chairman. The governor has listened with sympathetic interest to the statements of Republican politicians in Florida that the Federal Government should aid in the Everglades reclamation project, and he has said he will seek to get Federal aid, which if it means anything means an appropriation of money through an act of Congress.

The voters of Florida have selected two Senators and several Representatives to serve their interests at Washington in Congress. One of these Senators is the Hon. Park Trammell whose father, Governor Martin is suspected of planning to attempt.

The other United States Senator is Hon. Duncan U. Fletcher. Senator Fletcher has heard of Governor Martin's idea that the Federal government should be called upon to aid Everglades reclamation and he has confessed that he doesn't see just how it can be done.

In the logic of politics Governor Martin, if he is a candidate for the United States Senate, confronted with the situation in the Everglades about which he doesn't know as much as he knows about music (which is profanely little), and having said that aid to the Everglades is a Federal function, will try to make it appear that Senator Trammell has failed in his duty to undertake, namely, to furnish the commissioners of the drainage district with all the money they want to spend. On that basis, he will attack Senator Trammell and of necessity he will attack Senator Duncan U. Fletcher. He (Governor Martin) will beat his broad chest and say, "Send me to the Senate and I'll do it," just as he did in "I'll reclaim the Everglades!" Yes, he means it.

And the junior Senator from Florida will get into action.

Oh, well, what's the difference? The Governor cannot succeed himself in that office. He can threaten weak county officials with removal, from office for a year or two more and then he will be a private citizen again; and, we hope, a useful one.

Just about so much violence seems unescapable. Mussolini, the Italian dictator, has harassed it and directs it against all who would overthrow him. If American crime could be harassed and controlled it would make a great force.

C. A. Walsh of Davie, for fourteen years a resident in the muck land section of Broward county, says most of the damage in September was "from water and not from wind." But Governor Martin, who was safe in Tallahassee, and Chief Engineer F. C. Elliot, who was safe in Tallahassee, and neither of whom was in the Everglades, says the damage was wholly due to wind. Wind, wind, wind! Well, isn't the Governor a specialist in wind? Who will deny his conclusions about wind? Can he not qualify, as an expert as wind? They wanted a row, did they? Well, they can have it.

FLETCHER SAYS U. S. FOR DRAINAGE UNLIKELY

When congress convenes Duncan U. Fletcher, senior Senator of Florida, will ask the federal government to conduct a survey with a view of flood control in the Everglades districts in the southern part of the state. He made this statement at Jacksonville recently when he went there to vote.

The senator does not believe the government will give any direct aid for drainage because the sections to be reclaimed are not government property. However, he thinks a federal survey could be made which will aid the drainage commission to obtain information on water levels and other conditions.

The senator said he was not opposed to federal aid for the Everglades. "I am not taking the position of being opposed to federal aid for the Everglades," he declared, "and do not want it to appear that I am, but I honestly do not see how it can be obtained."

The survey which the senator will request at the next session of congress will be federal aid to some extent he said, and it will give the drainage commission much valued information of great benefit in its work.

OFFICEHOLDER 50 YEARS

TALLAHASSEE, Nov. 4.—February, 1927, will mean a little more than just February, 1927, to Clinton B. Gwynn, of Tallahassee, citizen, chief clerk in the state department of agriculture, who will mean the observance of the golden jubilee of his entry into state service.

Fifty years ago, Mr. Gwynn was employed by him, the late Col. Walter Gwynn, state treasurer.

The voters of Florida have selected two Senators and several Representatives to serve their interests at Washington in Congress. One of these Senators is the Hon. Park Trammell whose father, Governor Martin is suspected of planning to attempt.

The other United States Senator is Hon. Duncan U. Fletcher.

Senator Fletcher has heard of Governor Martin's idea that the Federal government should be called upon to aid Everglades reclamation and he has confessed that he doesn't see just how it can be done.

In the logic of politics Governor Martin, if he is a candidate for the United States Senate, confronted with the situation in the Everglades about which he doesn't know as much as he knows about music (which is profanely little), and having said that aid to the Everglades is a Federal function, will try to make it appear that Senator Trammell has failed in his duty to undertake, namely, to furnish the commissioners of the drainage district with all the money they want to spend. He (Governor Martin) will beat his broad chest and say, "Send me to the Senate and I'll do it," just as he did in "I'll reclaim the Everglades!" Yes, he means it.

And the junior Senator from Florida will get into action.

Oh, well, what's the difference? The Governor cannot succeed himself in that office. He can threaten weak county officials with removal, from office for a year or two more and then he will be a private citizen again; and, we hope, a useful one.

Just about so much violence seems unescapable. Mussolini, the Italian dictator, has harassed it and directs it against all who would overthrow him. If American crime could be harassed and controlled it would make a great force.

How much county printing is Leidle entitled to? She deserves N. S. V. for anything she wants.

I'm all set for the Palm Beach Times to reopen its campaign about Ocean Boulevard. Well, the Times has already had my statement. That's off my mind.

C. A. Walsh of Davie, for fourteen years a resident in the muck land section of Broward county, says most of the damage in September was "from water and not from wind." But Governor Martin, who was safe in Tallahassee, and Chief Engineer F. C. Elliot, who was safe in Tallahassee, and neither of whom was in the Everglades, says the damage was wholly due to wind. Wind, wind, wind! Well, isn't the Governor a specialist in wind? Who will deny his conclusions about wind? Can he not qualify, as an expert as wind? They wanted a row, did they? Well, they can have it.

The Okeechobee Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring a project for a district fair to be held there in January. The committee is Mr. Eglehof of the Dairymen's & Farmers Land Company, Sam Sherard, county agent, and G. W. Stovall.

THE BANK'S PART IN A REGION'S GROWTH

We feel at liberty to repeat it because it is said by many disinterested observers: The Bank of Pahokee has been and is a potent power in the growth of the eastern shore of Lake Okeechobee.

This institution has always met its civic obligations, finding means to conserve its financial stability while supporting every public endeavor.

The business of the people of Canal Point and Pahokee is solicited and their good will is appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Kilpatrick, Jr., spent Tuesday of this week in West Palm Beach.

Charles R. Barfield and Elsie Barfield accompanied by Miss Mae Tiffin, went to West Palm Beach Friday evening, returning the same day taking Mr. Barfield's sister, Miss Lula, back with them.

Robert Schroeder, went to Monte Verde on the first part of last week. He returned Monday, noon, accompanied by his Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Tiffin and daughter, Miss Venia Mae Tiffin. Miss Tiffin is feeling much better now.

Alfred Huskey spent the days last week with his son, A. J. Huskey, and Mrs. J. H. Cason, returning home last Friday. Since her arrival she has been very sick.

John S. Goss of Newark, N. J., has arrived from the north and is staying with his brother, Carmen Salvatore. He intends to farm here this winter.

M. A. Adams took his son Albert to the hospital in West Palm Beach Saturday.

Hilda Lee, Henry Stevens, Dorothy Burford and Arthur Clark spent Tuesday evening in West Palm Beach. A. Freise left Wednesday afternoon for St. Augustine.

John E. Larty, Mr. Claudius Charles M. Todd, Earl Smith and C. C. and W. W. Hall were out hunting Friday and Saturday.

T. W. Cranford left Sunday for Tallahasse to attend some meetings here. He is expected back Thursday.

Mrs. J. R. Poland left Wednesday for West Palm Beach. She returned the same evening, bringing her daughter, Mrs. Gladys Spangler, with her to spend the night.

Dr. E. J. Thomas spent Sunday and Monday with J. R. Poland, while Dr. Thomas and Mr. Poland went fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Ladham and family, who have spent several months in Jupiter, Fla., returned to Pahokee last week.

DEATH OF A. J. HUSKEY
A. J. Huskey of Pahokee and Little River, died Friday afternoon of a heart attack at his home on Pahokee Road. The body was taken to West Palm Beach and interred in the cemetery and then taken to Oak Hill for interment. Mr. Huskey has owned property in the Everglades for several years.
